

2008
JUNIOR vs. INSTRUCTOR
SMALLBORE RIFLE MATCH

March 17, 2008

Juniors Win

	Juniors		Instructors
Standing:	Kady Eby	76	Ron Benge	90
Kneeling:	Ben Mack	95	Bob Mack	74
Sitting:	Patrick Ramsey	92	Gary Schweinfest	90
Prone:	Brian Wissel	97	Gary Schweinfest	97
	Team Score	360	Team Score	351

Four Instructors, one of the parents, Bob Mack, and fourteen juniors shot in the match. All competitors shot with iron sights. Ten shots were fired for record on the NRA A-17 target at 50 feet. Juniors and Instructors shot on the same relays. The best four scores from the juniors and Instructors were used to make up the team scores.

The Instructors feared they were going to get beat by the juniors since some of the juniors had been shooting excellent scores, and Larry Christy, one of the instructors, has been out sick for most of the year. The Instructors did not want another year of heckling from the juniors. To the Instructors disappointment they lost to the juniors by nine points, giving the juniors bragging and heckling rights for the year. The Instructors look at it as "Good Teaching".

The both teams shot well and had a good time. Scores are normally close and you never know which team is going to win until all competitors have shot.
