8.0 POLICY

The St. Clair Twp – New Miami Life Squad recognizes the existence of the St. Clair Twp – New Miami Life Squad Members Association as an organized group of individuals with an interest in the support of the department. The department recognizes that the association is a completely separate entity with its own organization, officers and financial structure. The department also recognizes that membership in the association is dictated by the constitution and bylaws of the association and that affiliation with either organization does not constitute affiliation with the other organization in and of itself.

No specific agreement or contract between the department and the association is expressed or implied.
